Most diverse opinions obtain in diplomatic circles about Lord Lyons' lately published dispatch—some thinking that he ought to be given his passports; others, that there was no impropriety in his conduct.

By the arrival of the steamer Nebraska have Memphis papers and dispatches to Tues day morning. The most important portion of the information is, unfortunately, sadd mixed by one paper or the other. While the Bulletia most emphatically states that it has reliable information that General Sherma and Admiral Porter's expedition to Haines North was not a failure, the Arms on the and Admira corer's expension to Hainer Eliff was not a fallure, the Aryas, on the other hand, pretending to have news direct from a correspondent at Young's Point, as stremeously urges that it has failed, and that both fleets had returned to the place of start-ing without accomplishing anything.

young southern attornies, who are all there is left to the Clubs. The idea that these men will join to procure substitutes for poor men is preposterous. The price of one substitute would buy up a whole string of the briefless barristers and decayed old judges that run the Invincible Club. To come into such ricketty affairs to get out of the draft, is absurd. It is no refuge for anybody but traitors and secosh.

Copperhendism In Samagamous County held a Convention, at Springfield, on Sainrilay last, and nominated N. M. Broadwell as a candidate for County Judge, is place of the late Judge Power. The Convention passed as eries of resolutions approving the peace resolutions defeated in the last session of the Legislature, instructing our Representatives in the House and Senate "to persist in their efforts to pass" these resolutions at the June seesion, denouncing the Consertption law as "an act of usurpation unparalleled in the history of the county," and otherwise denouncing the Government, but uttering no word of condemnation of the rebellion. Of course, it is expected that the candidate nouninated for Judge will govern his judicial action by these resolutions. The stamp of the Saggamon Democracy is thus demonstrated to be of the malignant Chicago Tassekind.

Loyal Women.
Theloyal women of Connecticut appreciate rully the importance of the present crisis in our country's condition, and act promptly in accordance with their convincions. In Hart-ford, a "Leyal Woman's Longue" has just terminoted as my manufacturing fate was ments predicted it would—their fate was mexpected to themselves.

THE TOUTHOU AND STRENGTH OF THE EXERCY.
In my last letter I briefly gave the position of the enemy, so far as we knew it. I have but little to add to-day. There is no question but that the rebel army has been heavily reinforced, and I am warranted in the assertion. but that the rebel army has been heavily rein-forced, and I am warranted in the assertion that it to day numbers 10,000 effectives. These reinforcements have come from Vir-ginis and Vielaburg, and they have come in the shape of conscripts, put on garrison duty to the relief of tried regiments. All in all, the whole army within striking distance of this post is a formidable body of men, which cer-tably has the attempts in other uses here. tainly bas the strength to give us a hard battle.

THE ARMY OF THE GUMENDLAND.

But the Army of the Cumbriand is upon the alert, ready for offensive or defensive action, and you may rest, perfectly casy regarding the result of any engagement that may occur. At least, that is the way I feel about the matter. I know that the immense rebel force, about which I have been writing, is close upon us, ready, perhaps within twenty four hours, to spring for the assault; but I feel a perfect and absolute confidence in the abolity of this army, under the leadership of Gen. Rosserans, to whip twice the number of rebels that may assault it. The army is upon the alert, ready for what an hour may bring forth.

THE HALINOIS ERGIMENTS.

I was through the camps of several Illinois regiments, yesterday, in the divisions of Negley, Davis and Johnson. Negley's division was being reviewed by Maj. Gen. Rosserans. Reviews, by the biy, have been the order for eight or ten days back. They began with S anley's cavalry division, and the fine weather has thus fix kept them up. I am one of those, however, who don't make it a point to witness every grand review that comes off in an army, and I consequently have no occasion to write tri-weekly letters concerning this or that "splen" splay." I was at Negley's review yesterday, for the express purpose of getting a good look at "THE GLORIOUS OLD DYR."

The few remaining of that splendid regiment, that nearly two years ago left the city of Chicago under command of Col. Turchin, were out with colors flying, marching and maneuvering like weterans (as they are), one of the marked regiments of the division. Lieutenant Colonel Raifin, Major Jim Gathrie, Adjutant Banks, and Surgeons Bogue and Little, were upon the field. The regiment, though small, is in fine condition, ready for another haptism. More than three-fourths of its original number have fluished their course; the few hundred left will not permit an eclipse to shadow the glory of their fallen contrades.

of the Board of Trade Battery has been placed in command of the right tentalion of the Pioner of the Board of Trade Battery has been placed in command of the right tentalion of the Pioner corps. This corps, it will be remembered, is an independent command, made up of details from werey company in the army, the command of which was given to Capt. St. Chir Morton. The Beard of Trade Bastery lass, from the first, been attached to this corps, and the command of the right battallon which is now given to Capt. Stokes, is certainly complimentary to that gailant and efficient officer. The Captain is not releved, however, of the command of the Battery. It was, in fact, one of his conditions of acceptance, that his relationship to the Battery was and healthy. They have to-day 146 men it for duty, and you may walk their camp at any time of day or night, and my word for it, never a man, horse or equipment will be found out of place. If the Chicago Board of Trade Battery don't make a proud record for itself in the next fight it will not be their famit.

THE ROLL OF ROWER.

I was kindly furnished by Adjutant Hale with the following list of men who have been detached from the 98th for service in the Reli of Histore battlein of the brigade. It thinks I have before told the purpose of the Major General commanding the army, in the organization of these exitations. Three men from seek company, and two Sergeants and three Corporais, and one commissioned officer from each company, and two Sergeants and three Corporais, and one commissioned officer from each company, and two Sergeants and three Corporais, and one commissioned officer from each company, and two Sergeants and three Corporais, and one commissioned officer from each regiment, designated by their commander, have been detached throughout the army, and organized into Roll of Hour battallons. These battalions are to be attached to brigade headqueriers, mounted and armed with six shooting rifies, and represent for secession; but as for McCicilan concealing his plants from Gen. Scoti, for fast would be thus betrayed to the enouny, it is all boal. McCicilan one can be also be attached to brigade headqueries of conceaning the service. The squadrum furnished by the Sikh seglamul, is commanded by Heaut E. T. Rishop, and is made up of those men who have won the most honorable dislination in battle. To the credit of the squadrum of the Sth. I can say, that at the grand review of the division, Lieut Bishop and company were called out by Major General Roserans and

The True Policy.—We learn that General Scheuck has arrested a seditions editor in Baltimore and sent the fellow into the Considerate lines. That is the true policy. That is the policy which should be adepted with such sympathiers as Vallandigham, Consens, Sam Barlow, and the tribe who inhabit the Copperhead Hotel. Now that the loyal league is formed, let it be among its first duties to sustain this course, and report all traiters who are amenable to such rigid treatment. Let the creatures of sedition be sent to the Confederate lines, and let our pickets be ordered to short them if they attempt to return to this favored Christians oil. THE CITY.

An Allegred Swinsile.

Two weeks ago posterday, a man named Arza F. Brown came to Chicaco for the purpose of disposing of 150 barrels of apples. The apples did not arrive for a day or two after they were expected, and while Brown was waiting for them he formed the atquaintance of A. E. White, who formedly kept the Girard House in this city. He told White of the expected arrival of the apples, and the latter induced him to slop with him, saying that it should cost him nothing. White said that Chicago was overstocked with apples, and asks were dall. Brown offered the lot of 150 barrels to White for 250g, of which sum he wanted 2500 pall down. White incodesed Brown to one C. H. Dodley, whom he represented to be a heavy capitalist, worth 264g,000, which sum he had cleared during the past year, while in the employ of the Government.

Dudley was disposed to do the magnificent, the stupendous. He told Brown that he owned properly here and property there, and a certain hardware house in the city was using $15,000 of his money. Dudley stroughy recommended White to Brown; told him he was good and responsible, and that $200, half cash down, was a big price for the apples. So Brown sold the apples to White, getting, however, but $255 down, that being till the money that could be raised, and giving a worthless note upon a party in Indiana, for the balance of $250.

Brown seon ascertained the character of the note. A friend bold him that "it was utterfy worthless, the maker of it in ot being worth a cent." Evows found White and complained of the matter, and the latter coolly informed him that the apples had been shipped to one Brooks, in Memphia, and could not have been an account to the property of the property had been shipped to one Brooks, in Memphia.

Volce of a Loyal State.

As the up-coach of Burtanh's line was crossing the Musissippi river, at Hastings, Munnisots, at three o'clock on the morning of the 57th, the impetus of the coach in going on the farry-boat pushed the boat from the shore, and the coach body and hind wheels tipped over backwards into the river. There was six passeggrs in the coach, two of whom were drowned—Mr. Peter Black, supposed from papers found on his person, to be from Montreal, O. E.; and a Mr. McLain, bound from St. Lonis, Mo., and believed to be a resident of Stillwater, Munescots. The water where the coach went in was twenty field deep.

Union Democrat, as a response to come pettitions for an armistict such peace, sent in by Copperheads:
